SCHOOLHOUSE ROCK LIVE! Written by George Keating, Kyle Hall, and Scott Ferguson Directed by Russell Greene Based on and incorporating the music from the "Schoolhouse Rock!" educational shorts broadcast on ABC television between 1973 and 1986, this show has all ages laughing and singing along with fondly remembered tunes--from "Conjunction Junction" to "I'm just a Bill." Viewed with nostalgia by millions, Schoolhouse Rock! has become part of American popular culture.	STEEL MAGNOLIAS By Robert Harling Directed by Michelle Fisher Award-winning play about the lives, loves and losses of six women from a tiny parish in Louisiana. Truvy's beauty salon is where all the ladies who are "anybody" come to have their hair done. Filled with hilarious repartee and not a few humorously revealing verbal collisions, the play draws on the women's underlying strength, resolve, and love. The characters show that they are truly touching, funny, and marvelously amiable company in good times and bad.	BOY GETS GIRL Written by Rebecca Gilman Directed by Gordon Ellis After two blind dates with Tony, Theresa is convinced they have nothing in common and wants to move on. Tony, though, thinks otherwise. What at first seems like persistence on his part grows into obsession, and Theresa's annoyance with Tony turns to terror as he begins to threaten her and those around her. A chilling, suspenseful and disquieting tale about the unraveling of a strong woman's sense of security in the urban jungle.	BLACKPOOL & PARRISH Written by David Belke Directed by Dave Sheppard and Kristen Hughes Harry Blackpool is the agent for all Evil on Earth, while Rachel Parrish represents Good. The end of the world is scheduled for tomorrow at teatime, and they meet at the club so they can pass their duties to their oblivious heirs: a mild mannered phys ed teacher and a bohemian artist. In the middle of their cosmic game is an anxious club manager, the sole representative of humanity, and quite possibly the key to Armageddon's outcome!
